Their Biggest Challenges May Be Hiding Their Biggest Strengths.

Intense focus. Endless energy. Racing ideas. Big feelings. Many kids with ADHD have traits that cause friction at home and could grow into real strengths. Raising a Superhero gives you simple things to do about it, plus a way to keep your own patience from running dry.

- 40 simple missions to do together, mostly 10 to 20 minutes each, with little or no prep
- 8 modules: Deep Focus, Active Power, Spark Ideas, Big Heart, Wide Radar, Sidekick Systems, Learning Style, Allies and Comebacks
- A one-minute Guardian Pause in every mission to build your patience
- Ready-to-use phrases, a Patience Toolkit, a Phrase Bank, a 30-Day Tracker and a Wins Log

Non-medical family activities.
